ST. James's, Nov. 21. The following Addreſs from the Borough of Pontefract was preſented by Sir John Bland Bar. one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Dread Sovereign,

WE, the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeſſes and other Inhabitants, of Your Majeſty's ancient Town and Borough of Pontefract in the County of York, humbly crave Leave to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the glorious, and never to be forgotten, Victory and Succeſs obtained by Your Forces by Land and Sea, under the Command and Conduct of his Grace the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke. We muſt own, that (under God) theſe Victories are in a great meaſure to be attributed to Your Majeſty's great Piety and Zeal for Religion, and the Eſtabliſhed Church within this Realm, and Your great Prudence and Sincerity in the Management of Your Affairs in Church and State. May the ſame Spirit of Wiſdom and Goodneſs ever more inſpire Your Royal Breaſt with the beſt Reſolutions; and may the ſame viſible Hand of God continue and be in the Execution of them: And as You have apparently made the Advantage of the true Religion, and the Happineſs of Your People, Your only Aim, and that God hath been pleaſed to crown Your Endeavours and Deſigns herein with Succeſs; may the like Current of Fortune ſtill continue, till both You and Your Subjects ſhall have nothing more to wiſh for, than one from Your Majeſty to be the happy Heir of all Your Virtues, and to ſucceed in Your Dominions; none of Your Subjects more heartily deſire the ſame, and the Proteſtant Succeſſion limited by Act of Parliament, than we, who beg Leave to ſubſcribe our ſelves, Your Majeſty's Dutiful and Loyal Subjects; and to aſſure Your Majeſty, we ſhall never be wanting, on all Occaſions, with our Lives and Fortunes, to atteſt the ſame.

In Teſtimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of this Your Majeſty's ſaid Town and Borough, the 20th Day of October, in the Third Year of Your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs was preſented to Her Majeſty by Mr. Sandys and Mr. Taylour, Prebendaries of the Church of Landaff; introduced by the Lord Biſhop of London.

To the QUEEN's Moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Biſhop, Prebendaries and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Landaff.

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Biſhop, Prebendaries and Clergy, of the Dioceſe of Landaff, humbly take Leave (amidſt the Crowds of other Your moſt Loyal Addreſſers) to Congratulate Your Majeſty on the great Succeſs of Your Majeſty's Forces by Sea and Land, under the Command and Conduct of the Duke of Marlborough and Sir George Rooke; and likewiſe do believe, that that generous and glorious Act of Your Self-denial, whereby You freely, and of Your own Motion, parted with, and returned to the Altar, the Things belonging to the Altar, and thereby to God the Things that are God's, came up as a Memorial before God; and that this ſo great, ſo wonderful, and ſo ſeaſonable Succeſs of Your Arms, has been given You from Heaven, as a Sign and Evidence of its having been there graciouſly accepted, as here upon Earth (in part) thus gloriouſly rewarded.

An Act of that Tranſcendent, both Juſtice and Goodneſs, as whereby You have in Glory ſurmounted that Your great (and otherwiſe Renowned) Predeceſſor Queen Elizabeth, who, tho' ſhe was a moſt zealous Defender of the Doctrine and Diſcipline of our Church, yet is not Recorded as ſo great a Preſerver of the Revenues thereof; an Act Exemplary and truly Chriſtian, and as ſuch, moſt worthy of, but too great, we fear, for Your Subjects Imitation.

May the God of all Might, who has thus bleſſed the beginning of Your Reign with ſuch ſignal Victories over Your open and declared Enemies abroad, proceed in his Bleſſings, to the Conqueſt of all the evil Affections of Your cloſe and hidden Enemies at home; at leaſt, if their Hearts may not be conquered, their ſecret Plots and Conſpiracies may ever be deteſted and defeated; which ſhall be the conſtant Subject of our Prayers.

The following Addreſs from the Borough of Newton, and Fee of Mackerfield, was preſented to Her Majeſty by Thomas Legh and John Ward Eſqs; Repreſentatives in Parliament of the ſaid Borough.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Steward, Bayliff and Burgeſſes, of Your Majeſty's ancient Borough of Newton in the County Palatine of Lancaſter; together with the Gentlemen and moſt Subſtantial Freeholders of the Fee of Mackerfield, (containing 22 Townſhips, belonging to the Manor of Newton aforeſaid.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, beg Leave, with the reſt of Your People, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the late great and glorious Succeſſes of Your Arms by Sea as well as by Land, againſt the Common Enemies of Europe; and to aſſure Your Majeſty, That as no part of Your Dominions were more heartily thankful to Almighty God than we, for His great and ſeaſonable Mercy to this Nation, in placing Your Majeſty upon the Throne of Your Anceſtors; ſo there is none that have ſhewn themſelves on all Occaſions more ſincerely affected with the many Bleſſings Your People have reaped under Your Auſpicious Reign.

Your Majeſty's Declaration, That Your Heart was entirely Engliſh, and that You would defend and maintain the Church of England as by Law Eſtabliſhed, had the ſame Effect upon us, that the turning again of the Captivity of Sion had upon God's People; our Mouths being fill'd with Laughter, and our Tongues with Joy.

That Eminent Inſtance of contributing ſo largely out of Your Private Eſtate towards the Eaſe of Your Subjects in thoſe great Taxes, neceſſary for maintaining this juſt War, Your Unparallel'd Goodneſs, in giving up ſuch a part of Your Revenue towards the better Proviſion for the poorer Clergy of the Eſtabliſhed Church; give indiſputable Proofs of Your Tender Care and Concern for Your People: And that endearing and never to be forgotten Declaration, That as Your own Principles muſt always keep You entirely firm to the Intereſt and Religion of the Church of England, ſo they will incline You to countenance thoſe who have the trueſt Zeal to ſupport it; enlivens our Hopes of ſeeing that firm and laſting Union effected, which Your Majeſty has ſo graciouſly and ſo affectionately recommended from Your Throne.

May God Almighty continue us the happieſt People in the World, by granting Your Majeſty a long and proſperous Reign: May You leave that Church (of which You are a moſt Illuſtrious Ornament) ſo ſecured and tranſmitted to Poſterity, that her reſtleſs Enemies of either Extreme may never prevail againſt her: May You always Triumph over all Your Enemies; and may their Councels ever be defeated, who neither love Your Perſon, nor value Your Principles.

The following Addreſs from the County of Carmarthen was preſented to Her Majeſty by Griffith Rice Eſq; Repreſentative in Parliament of the ſaid County.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the High Sheriff, Depury Lieutenants, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen and Freeholders, of the County of Carmarthen.

May it pleaſe Your Majeſty,

TO permit us, Your Majeſty's moſt faithful Subjects, of Your ever Loyal County of Carmarthen, with Hearts enflamed with no leſs ardent Zeal and Duty than any others Your beſt and moſt loyal Subjects, who have preceded us in their more early Addreſſes, to Congratulate thoſe eminent and illuſtrious Succeſſes with which the Divine Providence has been pleaſed to crown Your Majeſty both by Sea and Land. 'Twas (certainly) Heaven inſpired Your Royal Breaſt with Counſels ſo Extraordinary, conducted with ſo much Secrecy and Surprize, that Your Enemies were in the utmoſt Confuſion and Aſtoniſhment to find them; ſo concerted, that neither by their wonted good Intelligence, (by which they frequently have obviated many well form'd Deſigns to be tranſacted in ſome former Campaigns) nor by any other Means, they have been able to penetrate into them: And doubtleſs, by the ſame Influence upon Your great Underſtanding, You have been directed in the Choice of that great Man who commanded Your brave and truly valiant Engliſh Army, to trample on the Necks of Your Majeſty's and Your Confederates moſt inveterate and perfidious Enemies, which they, to their immortal Honour, with unparallel'd Courage, did accompliſh, raiſing by their Victorious Arms Trophies to Your Majeſty's and our Nation's Honour on the Banks of the Danube; which Fame has extended beyond the Bounds of Europe, into the far diſtant Countries of the Eaſt. By theſe and other ſignal Actions abroad, Your Majeſty has raiſed the languiſhing and (almoſt) expiring Fortunes of the Confederate Princes, who now, under Your Protection, dare hope to Chaſtize the Infidelity of the Bavarians, and ſet Limits to the unjuſt Ambition of the French Uſurper.
